

How To Find Us

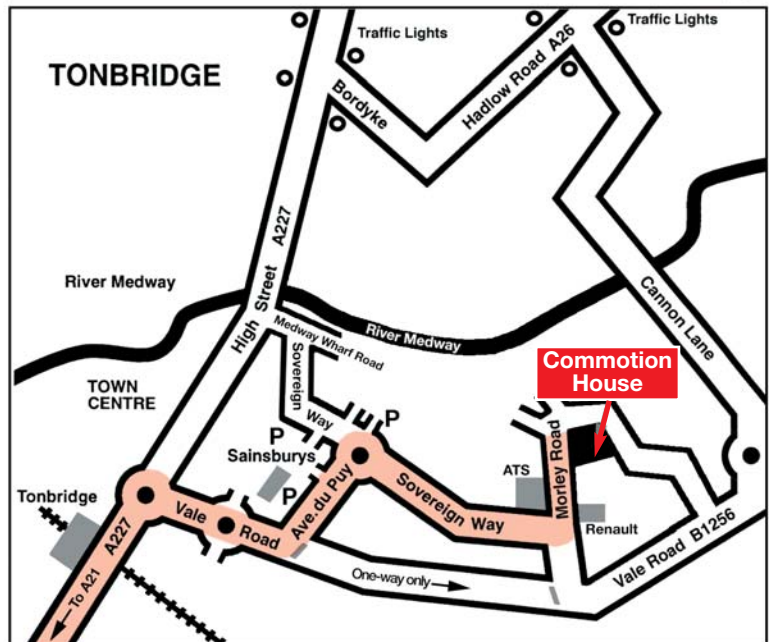

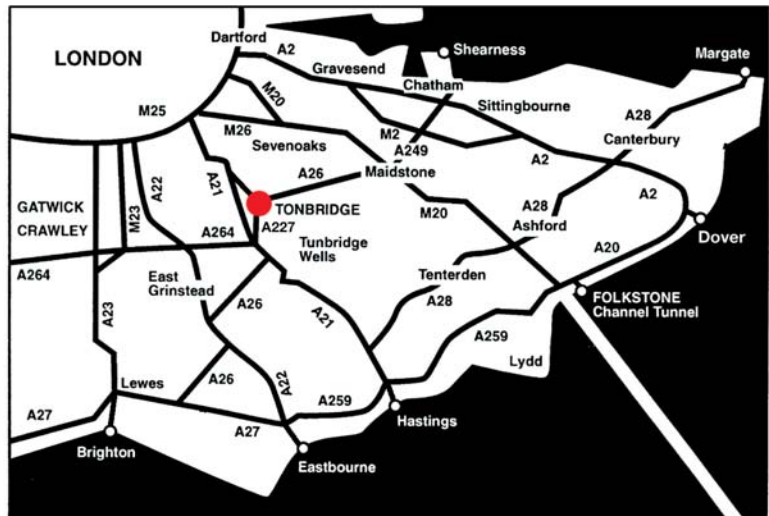

Commotion is situated on the main industrial estate of Tonbridge at Commotion House, Morley Road. Access can be gained via Sovereign Way.

Tonbridge is located approximately 26 miles south east of Central London and equidistant between the capital and Hastings, off the A21 some 10 miles south of the M25 (Junction 5). Tonbridge station is serviced by trains going to and from Charing Cross, Waterloo and London Bridge.

Exit the A21 at the Tonbridge South/Southborough turn off, also marked A26. The slip road from the junction takes you up, back and over the A21 and through traffic lights before descending into the town.

At the bottom of the hill go over the first (mini) roundabout, (there will be a Shell garage on your right) and bear left at the next roundabout, towards the town centre. You should pass a Lidl supermarket and then Tonbridge Station, both on your left. Immediately after the station you will come to a roundabout, where you should turn right into Vale Road.

Continue along Vale Road, straight over the next mini roundabout. You will see Sainsburys on your left. Continue around a sharp bend into Avenue du Puy. Go to the end of the avenue and turn right at the mini roundabout on to Sovereign Way. Follow the road until you see ATS Tyres on your left and the Renault dealership ahead of you. Turn left here into Morley Road and Commotion House is approximately 150 metres along the road on the right.
